

Stranded

Oh, no! You are shipwrecked and the only survivor to land on this deserted island. As you walk down the beach, you find an ancient lamp. You pick it up, rub it, and—you guessed it—out comes a genie!

“Bad news, human,” the genie says. “I can’t get you off this island. But the good news is I can transport 10 personal items to the island for you. The 10 items can include people, pets, and objects, but they can only be things you already have. And remember, the island doesn’t have electricity or Internet.”
