Amigos como nosotros

—¡Oye, tú! —dijo el pajarito Emmett desde lo alto de un roble rojo—. ¿Por qué estás tan triste?

Emmett, que era un petirrojo, le hablaba a Jasper, un zorrillo rojo que estaba sentado panza arriba contra el tronco del árbol.

—Ay —suspiró Jasper—. Mi mejor amigo, el zorro Charlie, y su familia se mudaron lejos de aquí. Ahora viven en un árbol distinto, en un bosque lejano —se lamentó suspirando una vez más—. Extraño a mi amigo.

Emmett comprendía y respondió con un silbido suave: —Uy, cuánto lo siento. Es difícil perder a un amigo.

—¿Alguna vez has perdido a un amigo? —preguntó Jasper entre llantos, estirando el cuello para mirar a Emmett.

—Sí, me ha pasado —dijo Emmett moviendo la cabeza de arriba abajo con energía—. A veces sucede, y es triste. Pero lo bueno es que el mundo está lleno de amigos nuevos que puedes conocer.

—Pero ¿cómo? —preguntó Jasper, secándose las lágrimas—. Charlie era mi mejor amigo, el mejor. Es un zorro, igual que yo, y nos gustan las mismas cosas. ¡Además, es muy gracioso!

—Tengo una idea —dijo Emmett agitando las alas—. ¿Qué te parece si tú y yo lo intentamos? Pareces un buen chico. Me encantaría ser tu amigo.

En los labios de Jasper se dibujó una sonrisa y de su boca salió una risita como la que hacen todos los zorros.

—¡Qué ridículo! Tú eres un pájaro y vives allí arriba —dijo Jasper, señalando a Emmett con su cola peluda—. Yo soy un zorro y vivo aquí abajo, en el suelo. ¡No podemos ser amigos!

—Bueno, no creo que sea tan así. Dos chicos listos como tú y yo podemos encontrar la manera, ¿no te parece? —le preguntó Emmett, estirando el pico para sonreír.

—Bueno... —comenzó a decir Jasper.

—Para empezar, tenemos mucho en común, ¿no? Quiero decir, tan solo míranos. Los dos somos famosos por el color de nuestro pelaje o de nuestras plumas. Los dos vivimos en este bosque tan bonito. Y a los dos nos encanta este hermoso árbol, ¿qué tal? —dijo Emmett.

—Bueno, eso es verdad —asintió Jasper.

—Pero, ¿qué hay del hecho de que tú vives allí arriba y yo aquí abajo? —se preguntó Jasper en voz alta—. Charlie estaba siempre aquí abajo, como yo.

—Sí, bueno, eso es una diferencia. Pero nuestras diferencias nos pueden ayudar a ser muy buenos amigos. Solo imagínate: puedo cantar muy dulcemente desde aquí arriba para que te duermas, mientras tú te acurrucas allí abajo en tu madriguera —sugirió Emmett.

—¡Imagínate! Desde aquí abajo, yo puedo mantener alejados a los gatos que quieren merodear tu árbol —agregó Jasper, entusiasmado.
—¡Qué buena idea! —silbó Emmett.

A Emmett se le ocurrió otra idea.
—¿Te gusta jugar a las damas? —preguntó.
—¡Me encanta! —respondió Jasper.

—¡Mira esto! —dijo Emmett, dejando caer una bellota sobre un tablero que había dibujado con el pico en la tierra.
—¡Genial! ¡Así se hace! —agregó Jasper, empujando su bellota con una pata para colocarla sobre el tablero.

—Y no hay nada que nos impida salir a dar largos paseos juntos, ¿verdad? —preguntó Emmett.

—Absolutamente nada —respondió Jasper, meneando la cola peluda.

—¡Seremos los mejores amigos! —dijo Emmett, batiendo las alas y volando rápido alrededor del árbol.

—¡No habrá amigos como nosotros! —aulló Jasper, dando un brinco y girando en círculos.

—Los amigos como nosotros juegan juntos y se ayudan el uno al otro. Seremos muy buenos amigos —canturreó Emmett.

Y así fue que Jasper y Emmett se convirtieron en buenos amigos. Tal vez no eran iguales, pero los amigos no tienen por qué ser iguales en todo. Los amigos deben ser simplemente... amigos. Y así fue que Jasper y Emmett se hicieron amigos... amigos para siempre.

Notas para los adultos

Este libro ofrece una valiosa experiencia de lectura compartida a los niños que se están iniciando o que aún se están afianzando en la lectoescritura. Los diálogos y las imágenes ayudan a los niños a contar la historia, ya sea que lean por su cuenta o que alguien más les lea. ¡Qué excelente herramienta para desarrollar la confianza que necesitan para encarar las aventuras que los esperan al leer!

Para ampliar esta experiencia de lectura, realice una o más de las siguientes actividades:

Conversen entre ustedes y cuéntense historias sobre sus amigos y sus relaciones de amistad.

Comenten qué es un buen amigo. ¿Es necesario que las personas sean iguales o parecidas para ser amigas?

Sugíerale al niño que haga un dibujo para un amigo en el que muestre por qué son tan buenos amigos.

Después de leer, vuelvan al libro una y otra vez. Volver a leer es una excelente herramienta para desarrollar destrezas de lectoescritura.

Mencionen algunas cosas que pueden hacer juntos los amigos y cómo pueden ayudarse el uno al otro.

Whole-Group Lesson

1. Gather students together, and write the number 0 where students can see. Have them identify the number and show zero with their fingers. Hold up zero fingers on your hand, and say, “Este es el cero. Cero también significa ninguno.”
2. Hold up a few fingers on one hand, and have students identify how many. Hold up zero fingers on the other hand, and say, “Tengo ____ dedos en una mano y cero dedos en la otra mano. ¿Cuántos dedos estoy mostrando en total?” Have students respond. Repeat several times with different quantities to have students practice adding zero.

Guided Practice

3. Have students move to their workspaces and use manipulatives to solve the following number stories involving zero. Have students share what they should do each time the number zero appears in the number story.
 - Yo tenía dos naranjas. Fui a la tienda a comprar más, pero no tenían. Entonces, compré cero naranjas. ¿Cuántas naranjas tengo ahora?
 - Yo tenía cero flores en mi casa, entonces fui a mi jardín y recogí cinco flores. ¿Cuántas flores tengo ahora?

2. Note that illustrators think of details that will make their illustrations interesting to look at. Say, “¡Un pueblo de arena suena genial! Ese sería un gran detalle para agregar a las ilustraciones de este cuento. Puede haber algunas cosas interesantes para agregar a las ilustraciones que están haciendo ustedes.” Distribute social stories, and allow time for students to look at and think about their illustrations. Have students make plans for details they could add to their drawings and share their plans with partners.
3. Have students move to their workspaces and continue to work on their social stories. Encourage students to add more details to their pictures. Support the remaining students in completing step 5 of the Writing Social Stories routine (card 16) by writing their stories.

Fine Motor Development

independent work

whole group

1. Have students move to their workspaces, and say, “Hoy vamos a escribir la Y mayúscula.” Write Y in clear view of students.
2. Ask, “¿Cuántas líneas diagonales tiene la Y?” (dos) Ask, “¿Cuántas líneas rectas tiene la Y?” (una)
3. Follow the Sky Writing routine (card 12) to make Y. As you model making the lines in the air, say, “En diagonal, en diagonal, hacia abajo.” Have students practice.
4. Model writing Y in clear view of students. As you make the movements with your writing tool, say, “En diagonal, en diagonal, hacia abajo.”
5. Have students complete La Y mayúscula (page 21 of Libro de actividades del estudiante). As students work, monitor for proper pencil grasp, pressure, and paper positioning, correcting as needed.

Science

minutos

whole group

partner work

1. Gather students together. Display the Shadow Diagram from Day 6, and ask, “¿Cómo se forman las sombras?” Have students turn and talk to partners to share their ideas. Select several students to share with the group. Paraphrase student ideas as needed.
2. Explain, “Con un compañero, van a usar una linterna para crear sombras. Deben trabajar juntos y turnarse para que las sombras se formen bien.” Turn off the lights. With a student volunteer, demonstrate the two jobs of holding the flashlight and creating the shadow. Tell students that they will have many opportunities to do both jobs.
3. Provide time for partners to experiment with creating shadows. Encourage them to create shadows with their hands and objects around the classroom. Every few minutes, signal partners to switch roles.

Creative Explorations

15-25
minutes

independent work

whole group

To account for weather conditions, this lesson can be switched with the Day 9 or Day 10 lessons.

1. Gather students together outdoors. Say, “Estuvimos usando el sol para crear sombras. ¡Hoy vamos a usar el sol para crear arte!” Explain that students will create designs. The objects they use will block the sun from that part of the paper. The rest of the paper that is exposed to the sun will become lighter.
2. Distribute a piece of construction paper to each student, and have them place it on the ground. Have students choose the materials they would like to use to create a design then arrange the objects on their papers.
3. Have students place rocks on the edges of their papers as paperweights. Leave the designs in the sun for several hours.
4. Have students remove the objects to reveal their designs.

minutes

whole group

1. Gather students together, and review the song “Para eso están.”
2. Ask, “¿Qué hacen sus amigos por ustedes?” Record a few student responses on the board or chart paper.
3. Plug the ideas into the blank verses. Sing the new verses aloud as a group.
Con los amigos ____, ____, ____.
Con los amigos ____,
para eso están.

Closing Circle

5-10
minutes

whole group

1. Follow the Closing Circle routine (card 18).
2. If time allows, choose an extension activity from the routine card.

Card 1

Morning Meeting

Objective: Students will build community through safe, predictable routines.

3. Have students greet each other. You may choose to do a whole-class greeting with a song or have students pass one of the following greetings around the circle by greeting the peers next to them:
 - high five
 - fist bump
 - elbow bump
 - wave

Our Day

4. Share the plan for the day. This can be done by reviewing the Tarjetas del horario en imágenes together or through a morning message—a short note addressed to the class that includes one or two main events that will take place during the day. The daily learning objectives are included in the Spanish Teacher's Guides for your easy reference.

Theme

5. Have students engage with the theme, color, shape, and/or phrase of the week. Ideas are included in the daily lesson plans in the Spanish Teacher's Guides.

Card 2

Teach Letters and Sounds

Objective: Students will learn the letters of the alphabet and the sounds they represent to support reading readiness and emergent writing skills.

Materials: Tarjetas de letras (Tarjetasletras.pdf)

Preparation: Choose which letters to teach based on your scope and sequence. (See page 39 in the Spanish Management Guide for more information.) Prepare to share the selected Tarjetas de letras.

Name It

1. Display the selected Tarjeta de letra, and say, “Esta es la letra ____ . Esta es la ____ mayúscula (point to the capital letter), y esta es la ____ minúscula (point to the lowercase letter).”
2. Point to the Tarjeta de letra, and say, “¿Qué letra es esta?” (Students respond with the letter name.)

Say It

3. Say the sound the letter represents, and discuss how the sound is formed. Have students repeat the sound several times.
4. Say the syllables that can be formed with that letter (for example, pa, pe, pi, po, pu). Have students repeat the syllables several times.

Write It

5. With your finger, trace the capital letter on the card. Narrate your movements, describing the starting point and the types of lines you are forming.
6. Ask students to hold up their pointer fingers and form the lines of the uppercase letter on flat surfaces. Have students repeat the sound the letter makes while they are forming the letter.
7. Repeat steps 5–6 with the formation of the lowercase letter.

Enojarse

Cami Camaleona está jugando al sol en el arenero con su querido amigo Ray. Están construyendo no un simple castillito de arena, ¡sino todo un pueblo de arena! Los dos oyen el timbre para entrar al salón de clases, pero necesitan terminar su trabajo. Cami empieza a trabajar muy rápido para que las últimas casas de arena queden perfectas. Ray se levanta para volver al salón, pero Cami todavía no está lista.

La maestra Ling se acerca para ver por qué Cami no regresa. Se arrodilla a su lado y le dice que es hora de decirle adiós a su obra. Cami aprieta la arena con los puños. Cuando Cami se enoja, se le tensa la mandíbula, siente calor en el cuerpo y aprieta los puños.

—¡No quiero irme! ¡Quiero terminar! —grita Cami.

La maestra Ling respira hondo y le explica que es natural enojarse. Para ayudarla a calmarse, le dice:

—Es difícil irse y dejar de hacer algo que te gusta. Pero, en el recreo, para cuidarnos entre todos, tenemos que escuchar y seguir las instrucciones. Ahora, todos vamos a entrar y es necesario que entres con nosotros, por seguridad.

La maestra Ling le propone a Cami que haga un ejercicio llamado “autoconversación”. Le explica que puede decirse a sí misma, en silencio, palabras de aliento como ayuda para tomar buenas decisiones en momentos difíciles. Le sugiere estas palabras: “Es difícil irme, pero sé que volveré esta tarde para seguir construyendo”.

Cami piensa: “Es difícil irme, pero sé que volveré esta tarde para terminar mi trabajo”. Después de pensar eso, Cami se da cuenta de que le resulta más fácil irse. Toma la mano de la maestra Ling y vuelve a clase.

La maestra la felicita por haber pensado esas palabras. Cami se sienta junto a Ray en el salón de clases y, cuando saca su bocadillo favorito, se da cuenta de que Ray no tiene un bocadillo que le guste. Ve que se le tensa la mandíbula, que aprieta los puños y que se le ponen rojas las mejillas. Ella respira hondo y le cuenta a Ray cómo puede pensar palabras de aliento para superar ese momento difícil.

Social Development and Executive Functioning

Social development and executive functioning include skills and competencies that are essential to getting along with others and managing cognitive processes to regulate behavior. Developing these skills is essential in early childhood as young learners set the foundation for healthy identity development and strong interpersonal relationships.

There are six components that will be assessed in this area:

- Building Relationships—Building relationships is the ability to establish and maintain relationships with peers and adults. This involves communicating with others, working together to achieve shared goals, and navigating social situations that may involve differences or conflicts.
- Social Awareness—Social awareness is the capacity of early learners to become aware of the needs, desires, and perspectives of others. This involves feeling empathy and showing care for others. Students use cues and situational context to learn that other people’s perspectives may be different from their own. Social awareness also involves understanding and navigating social norms.
- Decision-Making—Decision-making involves the processes through which prekindergarten students gather information and make choices that balance their own needs and rights with others’ needs and rights. When making personal choices and engaging in social interactions, students consider different ideas and solutions. They also reflect on and evaluate the consequences of their decision-making.
- Working Memory—Working memory is the capacity to hold information in mind for a short amount of time. Young learners draw on working memory to process information and complete tasks. This includes focusing when gathering information, organizing thoughts and information, following multistep directions, and problem-solving.
- Attention—Attention involves the ability to take in information from the environment and select and focus on one or more things. Students at this level are developing their abilities to sustain attention for increasing lengths of time. Attention involves focusing sufficiently to understand information or perform a task and ignore distractions.
- Self-Control—Self-control is the ability to manage one’s own feelings, thoughts, behaviors, and actions. This includes regulating emotions in various social situations, delaying gratification, and controlling impulses to make thoughtful and intentional choices.
